

Raymond Ferguson

May 25, 1939 - April 1, 2011

RAYMOND T. FERGUSON was born to the late Lawrence and Rosa C. Ferguson on May 25, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Pete, as he was so affectionately known, was one of thirteen siblings. He is the father of four daughters and one son.

Pete received his education in the Baltimore City School System. Immediately afterward, Pete started his career with horses. He had a passion for the track and the horses. Being a racetrack legend, he has traveled to every track across the country. He was an exercise and pony boy-he groomed and he was also a hot walker. Being affiliated with the track brought him great joy and many friends. He was always a true friend and a loving father.

Pete enjoyed family fun, cook-outs, watching television, spending time with his grand kids(especially Boda) and of course sipping on his beers.

He departed this life on April 1, 2011 at the place he loved so much- Pimlico Race Course.

Pete was preceded in death by four brothers, Lawrence Jr., Claude, Jerome and Walter; and one sister, Camilla.
