“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God's original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn't it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I am very sorry that you lost your loved one in death. Death is truly a heartbreaking event for the family, but I want to share God's wonderful promise of the resurrection with you. The Apostle Paul spoke about this wonderful hope at Acts 24,15 when he said, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous, and the unrighteous." Please find comfort in his word, because Jehovah never fails to fulfill his promises. One day your dear one will live again, and you have the opportunity to see him again. May those thoughts bring comfort to your hearts at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
