

Raymond Hill

January 15, 1945 - February 17, 2010

RAYMOND HILL, son of the late Preston Hill Sr. and Laura Bell Hill, was born on January 15, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a long illness Raymond was quietly called from his earth home to his heavenly home to rest on Wednesday, February 17, 2010. Raymond's mother, known as the late "Mother Hill," was a woman of great spirit, genuine heart and great faith in God, which was strongly implanted in Raymond. Raymond received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He later was employed at UMBC, Abacus Corp. and Open Bible Church with his brother Milton Hill for several years. Raymond was indeed a jack-of-all-trades. He worked in the field of maintenance, lead janitorial service and carpentry work. He was also known to be your human GPS System; if you didn't know how to get there he would direct you there. Raymond's hobbies included riding and fixing bikes, caring for a great deal of fish in his aquarium, telling stories, cracking jokes on people, laughing with his family and mingling throughout the neighborhood with friends. Raymond dedicated most of his life with his fiancée Rose Cooper, with whom he shared thirty-nine years. Out of this union they have three children Subrena Brooks, Rashawn Cooper and Antoinelle Cooper. Raymond also had two children from his previous marriage, two daughters, Wanda Tyson and Lena Hill, and at times spoke of a son. Several siblings preceded Raymond in death, Preston, Vernon, Frank, Mildred and Clara. He leaves to mourn: three sister, Evelyn, Mary and Louise; two brothers, Milton and Lewis (Buddy); thirteen grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Raymond Hill

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May you find peace and comfort from our loving heavenly father as you mourn the passing of your loved one. I'm so sorry that your family had to experience such pain, but remember that Jehovah has a better purpose in store for us. He makes this wonderful promise: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing."1st Cor 15:26 As for the dead, they will be raised back to life. At John 11:25 Jesus said: "I am the ressurectiion and the life."Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May your precious memories of Raymond be a great source of comfort to you in the days ahead. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address so that I can share God's purpose with you from the bible. Take care family!###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Raymond Hill. Losing a love one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).###imported-begin###S. Brown###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM