

Raymond Lewis Thompson

March 13, 1964 - May 3, 2002

Raymond Lewis Thompson was born to the late Nancy Mae Thompson and Dennis Thompson, Sr., on March 13, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. The Lord called him home to be at total peace on May 3, 2002. Raymond, AKA “Rainbow” was the baby of his family. He was a loving and affectionate person who surely loved anyone he came in contact with. Raymond confessed with his mouth and believed in his heart that Christ died for him and accepted Christ as his Savior. Raymond received his education in the Baltimore City School system and worked at various jobs. He leaves to cherish his memory: Companion, Tracey Caldwell; one daughter, Tanshantha Thompson; one son, Cameron Thompson; his father, Dennis Thompson Sr.; one brother, Dennis Thompson, Jr., four sisters, Sharon McCormick, Josephine Jones, Laretta Thompson and Angela Thompson; one brother-in-law, Michael McCormick; one sister-in-law, Denise Thompson; two aunts, three uncles, ten nieces, five nephews, one devoted friend, Pauline Godfrey; a loving godmother, Shirley Diane Dean; and a host of relatives and friends.
