Raymond Mark Moultrie was the son of James and Frances Moultrie. He was born in Georgetown, South Carolina on March 18, 1920. Raymond received his education in Georgetown. During World War II he joined the Army. Upon leaving the service, he came to Baltimore, Maryland. During his life's stay, he became a faithful member of Jehovah's Witnesses. While living in Baltimore he met his wife. From their union a family was joined together. He leaves to mourn: a devoted wife, Annie Moultrie; four children, James, Nathan, Thomas and Jacquelyn; five grandchildren, Eunice, Barbara, Steven, Nathan and Shakisha; seven great-grandchildren, Bryant, Branden, Denzel, Jordan, Aaron, Jarrod and Taylor; brother, James; sister, Florine; three sisters-in-law, Myrtle, Maria and Ella; two brothers-in-law, John and Thurman; two daughters-in-law, Alice and Tamera; one son-in-law, Mike; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. I SAY TO MY RAYMOND To know him was to love him, Both family and friends; And the sweetness of his memory Time can never dim; The happiness we once enjoyed, How sweet the memory still, But death has left loneliness The world can never fill; Sleep on, dear loved one, and take your rest I love you, but God loves you best.
