

Raymond M Morris

July 6, 1948 - October 23, 2022

RAYMOND M. MORRIS a.k.a. Tee was born to the late James and Lucille Morris in Charlotte, North Carolina on July 6, 1948.

He came to Baltimore at the tender age of seven years old where he received his education at Elmer A. Henderson School #101 and graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. He attended Morgan State University for an engineering degree. He worked at Bethlehem Steel Sparrows Point Shipyard for thirty years until his retirement.

Raymond married Carolyn and they conceived two children, Staci and Raymond II. They first met at fourteen, got married at nineteen and that union lasted for fifty-nine years. They were inseparable, when you saw one, the other was never too far behind.

Raymond loved to talk, play baseball and be with his fraternity brothers of Sigma Phi Gamma. He also enjoyed cooking at cookouts for his family and friends, smoking weed and drinking Hennessy and partying some more. Two of his favorite pastimes were playing chess and writing poems. He loved to hang out at the garage and on Sundays watch football with his friends. He never missed a chance to go home as he called it to Charlotte, North Carolina where he was born.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Carolyn Morris; sister, Gloria Harris (preceded him in death), sister, Roberta Johnson (preceded him in death), sister, Acquinetta Walker (NC); brother, Wayne (preceded him in death), brother, George (preceded him in death); daughter, Staci; son, Raymond II; son--in-law, Reco; seven grandchildren, Tywon, Ashante', Sabraya, Tychelle, Jenae and Katori; two great-grandchildren, Braydon and Malaysia; goddaughter, Tanae; special daughter, Tiffany and a good friend to the family Shirley; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
