“ I am so sorry to read of the recent passing of your loved one. From reading the obituary, I know that he entertained the same hope that my family has; the hope of the resurrection. John 5:28,29. One day soon we will be able to rejoice, because all of our loved ones who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. I can definitely identify with your pain, because I too lost my only son at a young age 13 years ago, but because Jehovah is my rock who is always there to comfort me, I know that I can endure until I see my son again. May the comfort that Jehovah gives to all of his servants give you the strength to keep on going; always having plenty to do in the work of the Lord, until that glorious day arrives. Whenever you are feeling down please keep this scripture in mind found at Isaiah 66:13: "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." May the undeserved kindness of our God, Jehovah, sustain you for all time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends of Raynard Malcolm Lawrence. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'; Raynard knew that. May his family find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus bring our enemy 'to nothing'. (1Corinthians 15:26) That day, will be a real celebration of life!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
