

Rayner Wallace Johnson

February 2, 1940 - February 5, 2011

RAYNER W. JOHNSON, son of the late Charles and Josephine Johnson, was born on February 2, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 5, 2011 after a lengthy illness while a patient at Levindale Hebrew Geriatric Center and Hospital (Meisel One Unit).

He received his education from Baltimore City Public School System and Morgan State University. He served four years in the United States Army receiving the Good Conduct Medal, the National Defense Service Medal and an Expert Badge Rifle. After serving in the military, he was employed by the National Security Agency where he retired in 1992.

On December 21, 1963, he married Elaine B. Smith, and out of this union one son was born, Rayner Dwight Johnson. He later married Theresa McCrimmon and gained two daughters, Rochele McCrimmon and Kimberly McCrimmon.

He was affectionately known as Mr. Ray in his neighborhood and enjoyed bird watching on the front porch and golfing during the warm months. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a true friend, caring father and loving husband.

Rayner leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Theresa; one son, Rayner; two daughters, Rochele and Kimberly; one brother, Charles; one daughter-in-law,

Crystal; six grandchildren, Andre, Latoya, Taniera, Rayner, Gerron and Brice; three great-grandchildren, Tashirah, Torian and Shamiyah; one niece, three nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
