I can't believe this happened to such a good young man, who had a good heart. I had the great pleasure of knowing Raysharde while he was attending Heritage high school. I pray for the family that They will gain strength to hold their heads up,treasure the memories and move forward.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I am a friend of Raysharde's cousin and I have been touched in just the few days, I've shared with his family since his tragic death. It pains me to see his mother trying to find the strength for everyone else, so much so, that she cannot even grieve for herself. Ms. Pam is a strong phenomenal woman who forces herself to persevere through circumstance despite the odds. I respect that and I respect her right to her sons home going. I pray that we can put ourselves aside for a moment to let her have just that. This was not over drugs, gangs, or all the other statistics that plaque the death of black youths but simply a boy who had a heart, bigger than his dream or love for sports. A boy who saw past the evil and found the joy in family and sports. Raysharde leaves behind a legacy of love, courage and dedication in all he was taught. I will holds children closer, be wiser about my surrounding and never accept injustice. Accountability is what is needed for justice, whether it's in what we do or who we do it too. A life was lost today and everyday, in the hopes that we accept out personal responsibility to change. If my victory results in another's tragedy, for whatever the reason, then it's not a victory to me. Thank you "Deek" for teaching me about strength and love in the face of adversity. You will be missed and lived by all!!!
