

Reato Thorne

August 24, 1918 - August 11, 2011

REATO B. THORNE, daughter of the late John Henry Cyrus and Courtney Solomon, was born on August 24, 1918 in Littleton, North Carolina. She departed this life on August 11, 2011.

She married the late Daniel Thorne, and out of this union two children were born, Alma and Clara(deceased).

She received her education in Littleton, N.C. She would later move to Baltimore, Maryland and become employed with the Braverman family as a Private Duty Nurse until her retirement. She and her late husband were lifelong members of New St. Mark Baptist Church.

Reato (better known to all as "Nanna") loved to vacation in the Bahamas and/or Nassau. Every year she would save up her change to make this trip. She enjoyed the pink sand and blue water. Nanna was mild tempered and always saw the good in all. When her living arrangements changed, she grounded herself with the memories of her home which she spoke of often when you visited her. She held strong to good and faith.

Nanna is survived by: her daughter, Alma Johnson; sister, Queen McIntosh and Vera Farrington; granddaughter, Valerie Jefferson, Valenia Nelson, Yvette and Yvonne Brooks; ten great-grandchildren, seven great- great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

Nanna was preceded in death by: her spouse, Daniel Thorne; daughter Clara Nelson, grandson, s Stepffon Brooks; sister, Esther Hendricks, Jackie Cyrus and Alma Burnett; and brothers, William Cyrus and John J. Cyrus.
