

Rebecca Alston

September 27, 1930 - January 26, 2003

Rebecca Alston, daughter of the late Dave and Callie Reynolds, was born on September 27, 1930 in Halifax County, North Carolina. God called our beloved Rebecca Alston, known as "Becky" to others, home after a lengthy illness. Rebecca received her education in the Halifax county Public Schools. She later moved from North Carolina to Baltimore, Maryland in 1952 where Rebecca and major united in marriage on June 26, 1953. Rebecca has five daughters and one stepdaughter. She retired from Baltimore Uniform Rental after twenty-five years of service. On December 15, 2002, Rebecca was baptized and accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. Rebecca was a good and trusted neighbor and a friend a to many. Everyone who knew and loved her will truly miss her. She loved her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren unconditionally. If Becky could say something she would want us to acknowledge her granddaughter Latrice Whitaker for going above and beyond her duty to her grandmother in her time of need. We also would like to acknowledge the son she never had, Frank Reynolds, her baby brother who she loved so dearly. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Major Alston; five daughters, Otisher Baker of Willingboro, New Jersey, Janis Broomes of Newark, New Jersey, Gloria Warner, Brenda Alston and Teresa Alston of Baltimore, Maryland; stepdaughter, Laniece Alston of Baltimore, Maryland; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren; one sister, Jessie Johnson; two brothers, Mayo Reynolds and Frank Reynolds; two brothers-in-law, Hulin Johnson and Ben Alston; sister-in-law, Emma Reynolds; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great nephews, great-great-nieces and nephews;

a host of friends including three special friends, Minnie Alston, Patricia Watkins and Odessia Johnson.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
