“ I had the pleasure of working with your mom on the usher board at St. John. She was a blessing in my life. She continued to usher when she had damaged to her legs and had to be in the wheel chair. Even though I am no longer at St. John her memory will always live on in my heart. I will always love her. My prayers will always be with the family for she loved her family. God Bless##imported-begin##Phyllis Cornish##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. Here is a promise from the Holy Bible that gives comfort; 1 Corinthians 15:26 which says: "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." It is my hope that this promise brings you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##S. McNeil##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
