

Rebecca L. Brock-Iverson

January 10, 1902 - January 17, 2006

REBECCA LEE BROCK-IVERSON, the daughter of the late Edward and Mary Owens, was born in Virginia Beach, Virginia on January 10, 1902. She was called home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, January 17, 2006. During her youth in Virginia Beach, she picked strawberries beside her husband James C. Brock, Sr. Of this union they had five children: Wallace, Mildred, Dorothy, Rudolph and James Jr. They eventually moved to Baltimore, Maryland where, after a few moves, they settled in the house on Presbury Street, which became known as "Mama's House." Her family was the first African-American family to live on that block. In 1967, James C. Brock Sr. passed away. In 1985, Rebecca married Elliott Iverson who passed away a few years later. "Beck" or "Mama," as she was known, was a great Humanitarian who loved people, and people loved her. She was a hard-working woman and a great matriarch. She dearly loved The Lord. In 2001, she was featured in the Baltimore Magazine. When asked what contributed to her longevity, she credited her own lasting health to "treating people right." That treatment included making homemade applesauce, canning peaches, preserves, making quilts, fried corn for sick neighbors and friends, and always making collard greens for her traditional family Christmas dinner. She loved balloons, stuffed animals, dolls and playing dominoes. She was a member of Wayland Baptist Church for over fifty years. When she arrived at Church, her finery included two-inch heels, magnificent hats and she brought the Holy Spirit with her. She belonged to the Henson's Ministry, the Missionary Club, the Matrons and the Seniors Ministry. When she turned 100 in 2002, Wayland Baptist Church sent "Beck" and her granddaughter "Patty" to Disney World to celebrate her birthday. Disney World was also celebrating their 100th Birthday. "Beck" was made the Grand Marshal of the parade, received four Birthday Cakes and was welcomed at each location. Each year thereafter, Disney sent "Beck" birthday gifts. Though she lived through the whole 20th century history, several world conflicts, the advent of flight and the Civil Rights movement of the 60's, she was most concerned about the state of things right now. Three of her children predeceased her, Mildred, Rudolph and Dorothy. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: two sons, Wallace Sr. and James Brock Jr.; three daughters-in-law, Ruby, Marie and Arnette Brock; grandchildren, Wallace Jr., Wayne, Roger, Linda, Leslie, Gary, Angie, Patricia, Vincent, Stephanie, JoAnn, Keith, Michelle, Rhonda, Tracey, Adrian, Algernon, Rudolph Jr., Robin and the late Paul, the late Sandra and the late Harold; numerous great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, great-great-great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends, especially Mae Forbes, Florine Camphor, Virginia Day and Mr. and Mrs. John Wells.

Tribute Wall

“ Rebecca L. Brock-Iverson

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Rebecca L. Brock-Iverson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. She lived an amazingly long time. John 5:28,29 says- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you receive much comfort and strength from this hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To Adrian & family, We are sorry to hear about the passing of your grandmother. Your love one have fault a good fight, she have kept the faith, and have finished her course. and now she is with her heavenly father. Submitted Jimmy & Winnie Gilliard##imported-begin##Wendolia Gilliard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family, Just to let you know that nothing is loss if you know where it is...and moving day is wonderful if you have a place to go. Our dear sister has moved to a Mansion on high not made by hand. You have made her life heavenly on Earth. May the family continual to trust God and rest in His Perfect Peace during this your time of trail and testing.##imported-begin##Floyd Brice##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hi Mr. Brock, Please know that we are keeping you and your family in our prayers at this time and always. Your mom lived a long and Happy Life and we know she is where we hope to someday be. Please know we love both you and Mrs. Brock and if there is anything we can do for you, please don't hesitate the let us know. Love Always, Laura Brown and Milton Keene.##imported-begin##Laura Brown and Milton Keene##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from the resurrection hope noted at Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I was very sorry to hear to hear of the death of loved one. Even though she lived a long life, did you know that it was God's purpose for people to live forever? So soon he will do away with death in the promised ressurection. Please read the following scriptures concerning this hope, because I'm sure they will bring you comfort. Acts 24:15, Rev 21:3,4, and Isaiah 25:8. I hope that your cherished memories of your loved one also comfort you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. 2Corinthian 1:3-4##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM