“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. Death is truly a most bitter pill to swallow. It's just so hard to get used to the fact that our loved one is not here anymore. God never meant this pain for us, and his desire is for all obedient people to live forever. That is why Rev21,4 tells us that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more. May it bring happiness to your heart in knowing that your dear Rebecca will come to life again. May your precious memories be a source of comfort to you at this trying time in your lives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To Ms. Rebecca family and friends, I send my condolences. Living for 56 years in these days as the bible calls them is great. The time is coming when our Creator promise will come ture as stated at Hosea 13:14,"From the hand of Sheol[the common grave] I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Sheol? Where is your destrctiveness, O Sheol?" Gone will dying, no more, I am looking forward to that in the near future. I hope these thoughts will prove to be uplifting to read and share.May all the happy times shared with Ms. Rebecca and her wonderful smile on her face help in the days to come.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
