If You Could See Me Now

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear.

Though you may not understand, why I'm no longer there.

Remember my spirit, that's the real me because I'm still very much alive, I've just been set free, oh, if you could only see!

I have beheld our Father's face; I've touched my Savior's hand. All of Heaven's angels all rejoiced, as I entered the Promised Land. Beyond the gates of pearl, I've walk on golden streets. I've touched the walls of jasper, dipped my foot in the crystal sea. The beauty is beyond words, and nothing can compare. I've even seen your mansion and someday I'll meet you there. Let Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way! So, please, don't cry because we will meet again someday.

“ To you dear family members and friends, I extend to you my deepest sympathy and love. Aunt Frances was a very special woman who had a kind spirit and a loving heart. she shared wisdom to those who sought her out. She dearly loved her children and grand children. All of them were well loved by her. I remember as a child how she would talk to me about the bible a subject that was closed to her heart. Today I still remember the things she taught me and help me to see there is a better way of living and enjoying life. John 25:28, 29 mention a time of the resurrection where we will be together again. May memories comfort you in the days to come.
