

Regener Gill Collins

February 28, 1949 - September 21, 2017

On Tuesday, September 21, 2017 surrounded by her family Regener Gill Collins transitioned from this world to her new home.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Essie Mae and Fred Gill.

Regener did not want perfection but contentment. She felt it all. The good, the bad, and the worse but choose to believe in the good. Regener attended Jefferson High School in York, South Carolina, Christopher Newport Nursing School and Akron Ohio Nursing School. She got her nursing license September 11, 1974.

She was a caring and loving woman. For thirty-nine years she showed that love at the Medical College of Virginia as a registered nurse, the dialysis department and in the orthopedic department.

She was a faithful member of Mount Calvary Church International, where she was an usher (Head Usher for many years), and a member of the Senior Ministry. She also was a member of the Sammi Ministry of New Kent and the Young at Heart of Charles City.

Regener leaves to cherish her wonderful memories her devoted children; daughter, Cierra; two sons, Marcus (Helen) and Bobby; five grandchildren, Keyondre, Bobby Jr., Marcus Jr., Trevon and Michael; five sisters, Thelma Vaughan (Shaffer), Freddie Mae Gill, Essie Gill Bankhead, Cynthia Gill Johnson (Edward), and Teresa Gill; five brothers, Lathen Gill (Angelika), William Gill (Valarie), Kelvin Gill, Derrick Gill, (Dylater), and Tony Gill; father of her children, Bobby L. Collins; several devoted friends and a host of relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
