

Reggie Maurice Adger

September 8, 1974 - March 21, 2003

Reggie Maurice Adger, also known "Reg," was born on September 8, 1974 in Baltimore, Maryland. He suddenly departed this life on March 21, 2003. "Reg," as he was often called, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Reg had many joys in life, but he especially loved to watch and play football and basketball, play video games, laugh and be with his family and friends. Reg had a love for catering that he fulfilled through Da Woods Catering. Reggie was a loving and caring person, who had an awesome personality that touched everyone he knew. He was truly known for his sense of humor and bright smile that lightened up the room. He loved spending time with both of his children, whom he really loved. Reggie left us at one of the places he loved to be, on Smallwood Street. He leaves to mourn his death and cherish his memory: his mother, Alice M. Adger; father, Reginald S. Adger; two children, (daughter) Tshawna B. Adger and (son) Reggie M. Adger, Jr.; sister, Yolanda M. Adger; niece, Kaliyah J. Hinton; brother-in-law, Troy L. Linton; two grandmothers, Mary Randolph and Dorothy Adger; two aunts, five uncles; special uncle, Christopher Randolph; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends. Reggie also leaves to mourn: the rouse family, Mrs. Ruth Rouse, Carlos Rouse and Kimberly Rouse, who he loved as a part of his family. Reggie will always be loved and missed, but never forgotten.

“ I am so upset. I cried all weekend when my sister told me the horrible news. I just can't believe it. We have been friends since we were kids. You were my first boyfriend. I love you and I know you are in a better place. Someday we will meet again in a better place.##imported-begin##Tanya Mitchell Valentine##imported-end##

“ Over the years, Reggie's and my relationship evolved into one of the closest that I had. My life has been forever changed just by knowing and loving him. While my heart knows that he is in a better place; a safer place, my pain and condolences know no end. To all his family and friends I extend my love and my sorrow for your pain and lost. I will forever miss Reggie.##imported-begin##Kimberleigh Bobbitt##imported-end##

“ To Reggie - Your passing has left a memory, where your presence use to be. Your smile and your laughter, are still so clear to me. My tears I know are selfish, 'cause you're in a better place. And since I have no answers, I can only live by faith. My strength will come from God. to help me understand, Although you are not here with me, you're in His safe and caring hands. - Kim I will forever love you.##imported-begin##Kimberleigh Bobbitt##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends. I greet you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. On behalf of my pastor Rev. Jerome Mcneill and the Temple Baptist Church family we send our deepest sympathy. Reggie was my friend and I share your grief, but God is wise and never makes a mistake, and he will be the source of all your comfort. May the peace of God be with you always not only during this time, but forever more. God bless you. Rev. Ronald Willis##imported-begin##Rev. Ronald and Candace Willis##imported-end##

“ I never had a little brother until I met Reggie. There were not a lot of families other than my own that loved me like I was their son like yours. Since I can talk to Reg without opening my mouth, this message is for Ms. Alice, Lan-Lan, and Chris(lil Wuss). I may have entered his life half way through but I know that I have enjoyed being around him while being silly, immature, and especially seeing him mature into a man, a father, and be responsible. Even though I moved away and our lives drifted apart, there was never one time that your family was not in my heart. I never turned my back, I never said "That's their problem," some of the time I knew what was going on but you (Reggie) felt that he could solve his problems. He didn't want me coming into town playing big brother or giving advice, he just wanted me to be his "N-I-G-G-A". I love that boy and I love all of you. To Reggie, you'd better not try to slack off of any of your being a good son's responsibilities, because when I left you in your eternal resting place on the 29th, my mother came on up to keep an eye on you. So now you gotta check in on her everyday. And you know she don't play. Peace Dog, I'm gonna mourn you till I join you. P.S.- Don't tell my mother everything that I've done, please.HAHAHAHAHA###imported-begin###Cory Thames###imported-end###

“ I always looked out for Reggie like a lil brother. We had the best of times growing up together. I'll miss him very much. I can't believe that he's not here with us. I still wait for him to meet me at the door of Tim and Greg's house. For the past two years he always told me he was going to give me my twenty dollars back and I always laugh at him. I wrote that twenty off as a lost, but I'll never write Reggie (stinky) off as a lost. God Bless.###imported-begin###Kevin Howard###imported-end###

“ To The Family of Reggie Adger: We are sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. We find much comfort in God's promise at Revelation 21:4 where it tates : "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". It is our hope that your family finds comfort in these words also.##imported-begin##sharon hill##imported-end##

“ TO MY STINKBOO, ALTHOUGH WE GREW APART THROUGH THE YEARS YOU WERE ALWAYS ON MY MIND. YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. YOU WERE MY FIRST LOVE ALWAYS AND FOREVER WILL BE. I WILL ALWAYS HAVE WONDERFUL MEMORIES OF YOU.YOUR WARM HEART AND SOFT SMILE, YOUR BEAUTIFUL EYES AND YOUR LAUGHTER NEVER FADED MY MIND. I LOVE YOU STINKY. LOVE ALWAYS, YOUR STINKAPOO##imported-begin##JACKIE##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to the Adger family. I just got the news months after you're gone. Reggie, you know that I'll always love you. There was always a special place in my heart for you, even after our relationship ended. I know you are still with me, you tried to tell me what happened, you sent me lots of signs, I just didn't listen. All this time I thought you weren't talking to me. Amazing how you brought me and your mom together. So now I know why you weren't calling me, why you wouldn't return my pages. All of the stress and struggles of life are behind you now, you are in a better place. Rest In Peace.##imported-begin##Tonnia##imported-end##

“ I have deep sympathy for Reggie Adger's family and friends. One scripture that comforts me in times of distress is at Revelation 21:4 which says " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May this scripture always prove to be comforting.##imported-begin##Lauren S.##imported-end##
