“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible informs us that there is much hope for our dead loved ones. Isaiah 26:19 lovingly promises- "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up..." That will take place in a peaceful new world in which there will be no death, sickness, sorrow or pain. {Revelation 21:3-5 and 2 Peter 3:13} May you and your family receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises from the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ I am so very sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincere condolences. She was a beautiful lady, and although I didn't know her, I know she will be deeply missed. Death certainly impacts us in a profound way, and is a very hurtful event that we all long to see an end to. Our loving heavenly father promises to put an end to this terrible legacy that Adam and Eve left to us, and promises that soon our loved ones will live again by means of a resurrection. 1st Corinthians 15:21,22 says, "For since death is through a man, resurrection of the dead is also through a man." "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. What a happy day that will be when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Please find comfort in the scriptures, because in them you will find the promises of Jehovah, a God who cannot lie. All he promises will come true. Take care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ It seems so unfair when someone's life is cut short and we long for the answer to the question why? Well I extend my deepest sympathy to the family and hope you will find hope in that Jehovah God will put an end to death according to Rev. 21:1-3. It is not too late for Regina as well because God promises a resurrection back to life in our near future. We can trust these words because Is 55:11 states nothing God's speak will return to Him without results. How comforting of this truth and the fact Heb 6:18 states it is impossible for God to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Regina. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says "It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT
