

Regina Lewis

May 20, 1937 - May 31, 2008

Regina Brooks Lewis, daughter of the late Willis and Etheleen Harris, was born on May 20, 1937 in Granville County, North Carolina. She departed her journey on May 31, 2008 after entering the crossroad of lung cancer. She received her education in the Baltimore City School System. While working as a maid, she attended evening classes at Calvert Educational System where she graduated as a Seamstress, later she obtained employment as such. She also worked as a Security Guard and for Noxzema Cosmetics. She was affectionately known as "Jean" to family and friends. In 1951 she was joined in holy matrimony to the late Charles K. Brooks, and out of this union two children were born, Marcia Brooks Byrd and the late Richard Brooks Jr. She later married Robert T. Lewis to help raise her two small children. Jean's passion was helping those in need and cooking. Her door was never close to anyone. She was a woman of God that "denied self" to help others. Jean made numerous friends wherever she went and will be truly missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and devoted to her family. She leaves to cherish her memories; her husband, Robert J. Lewis, one daughter, Marcia Brooks Byrd, son-in-law James F. Byrd Jr.; four grandsons; James F. Byrd III, Xavier, Antwain and Richard Byrd; nine great-grandchildren; Shaznra, Xavion, Anayae Byrd, Xavier Jr., Antwain Jr., Richard Jr., Raynard Byrd, Daquan Smith, and Rakuan Lambert, two nieces; Cynthia Jones and Allie Junita Swillings and a host of great nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I wish to offer my heartfelt condolences. At such difficult times we must look to our loving heavenly father who has deep care and love for us. 1st Peter 5,7 He is the one that can give us much comfort and the strength to endure our trials. He is also the only one who can save us out of death, and bring our loved ones back to life. As Psalm 68:20 says: "The true God is for us a God of saving acts; and to the Sovereign Lord Jehovah belong the ways out from death." Only Jehovah God has the power to restore the life back to someone who has died, because they are in his infinite memory, and he remembers every detail about them. That is why one day all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus"s) voice and come out, because Jehovah has given Jesus all authority to ressurect the dead, according to John 5:26-29. May you find comfort in his promises, and the strength to go on with your life.###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
