

Regina C. McFadden

February 18, 1938 - June 12, 2015

On June 12, 2015, God called one of his angels home in Charleston, South Carolina at the age of 77. Regina C. McFadden was born in Richmond Virginia on February 18, 1938 to Cortney Jasper and Willie Smith, Sr.

She was educated in the Richmond Public School System where she attended Maggie Walker High School. After high school, she was employed by the Richmond Community Hospital.

On April 6, 1972, she married her best friend, James. They moved to Charleston, SC, where she later became vice president of the Metro Limousine Service until her passing. Regina was a caring wife of 43 years, stepmother, grandmother, aunt, god-mother, sister and friend to many. She indeed was one of the rocks in the family, loving everyone unconditionally and doing all that she could for anyone she came in contact with.

She was a member of Sharon Baptist Church (under their "Watchcare") while living in Charleston. However, her spiritual growth continued as she attended many churches. Regina was committed to studying God's word and using it in her daily life. A life touched by God always ended in touching others.

She had a passion for shopping which was one of her favorite thing. Regina loved high fashion and it showed in her style. She often watched the local and national news and kept up with news within the community. She was a defined woman of character, loving and kind. Regina cared for her family especially her extended family.

Leaving to cherish a bounty of loving memory is a loving and devoted husband, James W. McFadden; two stepdaughters, Helen McFadden and Cheryl Edwards(John); two stepsons James and Samuel(Freida) McFadden; nine grandchildren; one great-grandchild; two god-sons, Erik Brown (Pamela) and Christopher Brown (Eddrina); two brothers, Gerald (Russelyne) and Bolden (Aljawana) Smith; sister-in-law, Flossie Smith; extended family, Earnest and Cora Brown; a host of nieces and nephews other relatives and caring friends.
