

Regina Richards

August 12, 1932 - August 26, 2016

REGINA RICHARDS, was born on August 12, 1932 in Glen Burnie, Maryland to Inez and William Brooks. She lived a quiet life in Cedar Hill, Maryland until she fell ill. She did not suffer long, and departed this life on the morning of August 26, 2016 after spending the night with her family praying by her bedside.

Regina was the youngest of eight children. She grew up in a pleasant home and loved to spend time with her siblings and close niece Celestine. She received her formal education in the Anne Arundel County Public School System and was a proud graduate of Bates High School in 1950. she received religious training at John Wesley United Methodist Church. In her recreational time as a teenager, she enjoyed barn dances, spending time with close family and friends and to taking trips with her sisters.

After high school, she worked as a clerk in the finance department at Fort Meade Army base. She rode to work every day with her brother-in-law Gilford, which gave her time to stop to talk with her sister Muriel and later spend time with nieces and nephews.

By April 1957, Regina married the man she adored, Roland Richards, she and Roland would go on bus trips and double dates with her sisters and their husbands. The two were married 59 years and from their union were blessed with two loving goddaughters, Karen Queen and Lynn Hines- Wade.

Regina would spend her later days as a retiree, with her husband and family. She would walk with her favorite cousin, Maxie, every day in the Glen Burnie Mall. Then she'd pick up her sisters Arline and Muriel, and the "golden girls" as we affectionately called them, would have lunch, go to the mall and grocery store. On special occasions, she loved to go out to eat crabs, spend holidays with her extended family and go on weekend "girl" trips with her sisters and nieces. When Regina stopped driving, her niece Karen and nephew Gilly would take her to run errands and to the doctors. Her husband Roland would cook with her and that is how she spent her final days, in the company of the love of her life.

She leaves to reflect on her life: husband, Roland Richards; sister, Muriel Queen; brother, Winslow Brooks Sr. (Freida); and a host of nieces and nephews.
