“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends of Regina T. Simmons. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ Regina was more than just my party and jazz music buddy, we were close friends. She was the kind of person that would do anything she could for someone she cared for if they were in need. One time I had misplaced my house keys and couldn't get into my apartment. She let me spend the night so I'd have somewhere to lay my head until the next day. I'll never forget that.##imported-begin##Reginald Kelly##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
