Obituary

Now we realize that God knows best
So He called you home to give you rest.

Remembering Our Beloved

Reginald Kpapoe Addo was born November 11, 1978 to Patricia Addo and the late Kingsford Addo in Richmond, Virginia. On Tuesday, April 30, 2019, he transitioned to the pearly gates of Heaven.

Reginald attended Henrico High School and completed his General Education Development (GED) from the Richmond Public School System. He later attended Barber School where he received a certificate in barbering. Early on, he worked various jobs and then decided that he wanted to do more with his life. Thus, he began being self-employed as a barber for many...many years. At an early age, he accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. Reginald did not attend church, however his faith in God was very strong. He knew his spiritual awakening that allowed himself to be open and invited the living Spirit and the love of God to be in his heart. Reginald truly enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He was all about family. He was an excellent cook with his specialty in preparing tacos and chicken alfredo.

Reginald was a classic in his appearance and was always neat.

He leaves to cherish his memories at 40 years young, four children, Tyliki

Davis, Akahsha Stewart, Najeah Gordon and Nasir Gordon; one granddaughter and a little beloved-one on the way; loving mother, Patricia Addo; three brothers, King, Brad and Cory Addo; sister, Myeisha Adewyi; a devoted and adored fiancée, LaTonia Stewart which loved him dearly; along with a host of other relatives and devoted friends.
