

Reginald Oliver Booker

November 22, 1957 - April 15, 2014

Reginald Oliver “PeeWee” Booker, 56, was born in Richmond, Virginia on November 22, 1957 to the late Joyce E. Booker. He departed this life on April 15, 2014. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Rosa Booker and brother, James Booker.

Reginald received his formal education in the Richmond Public School System.

He was employed by the City of Richmond with Department of Utilities for over 35 years of dedicated service. He took pride in his work and anything that he did. No job was too large or small for him to tackle. He would accomplish any task set before him.

He was also known to many as “PaPa”. He was the #1 Washington Redskins Fan. Ask him anything about the Redskins and he could tell you everything. PeeWee was a very loving, compassionate and giving person who cherished his time with his family and friends. In his leisure, he especially welcomed the time he spent with his nieces and nephews playing sports. PeeWee was a genuine person that loved being very jovial; a person that always kept you laughing. PeeWee always greeted you with a great smile.

He leaves to cherish his memory two sons, Reginald Collins Sr. (Crystal) and Keron Turner; seven grandchildren, Javon Lee, Briana Washington, Reginald Collins Jr., Javontae Collins, Demyne' Collins, Heaven Collins, and Reginae Collins; one great grandchild, Sophia Lee; five sisters, Rosetta Fields, Juanita Washington, Jewel and Geneva Booker and Sandra Pate; brother, Tyrone Booker; three brothers-in-law, Reginald Fields, Jeffery Washington and Waymond Pate; devoted friends, Terry Scarborough and Allen Parker; his two loving dogs, Coty and Cinnamon; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Booker family. The death of a dear loved one is so hard to bear. Knowing this, our loving merciful Father gave his Word to end death, pain and suffering. His love will strengthen you to endure the loss of your dear loved one.
Revelation 21: 4, 5.

“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. We can always find comfort from God's word the Bible. The Bible promises at (Revelation 21:3) " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." A life without tears death and pain will soon be a reality. May Jehovah God of all comfort be with you and your family. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4).

God knew that it was time for you to come to your heavenly, he knows that everyone will be sad and hurt that they will not see you again on this earth but they will all they have to do is get right will God and all of you will be laughing and having a good time. It's not the way he died, but it;s how and what he did when he lived here. God be with the family and friends and help them each day
