“ My dear Dad words will never begin to describe the emptiness I have in my heart. It's been 13 days and not a single day has gone by that I haven't spoken about you and wish with all my might that you can return, this is very hard for me. I have cried for you, laugh out loud when I remember the things you use to do and cry again bitter sweet tears when I watch a video of you being the happy person you were. I miss you with everything in me I will never, ever forget you and I know I will see you again, I love you my dad ❤️.

“ I only knew stories about Mr. Reginald Brown “Dad” for a long time, heard his voice on the phone when riding into work with my sweet friend, Michelle. When I finally had the opportunity to met Dad, I could only think this man is the cutest, sweetest little guy, I loved him instantly! Him and my dad had so many similar funny characteristics that Michelle and I would compare, so I felt as if I already knew him!

My fondest memory is bringing over milkshakes to the family and also sharing a little red wine with Dad and Michelle, such a simple night, but one that will forever be with me and remind me of this wonderful man and father.

Reginald Brown, may you Rest In Peace & to your beautiful family may God surround you with his love and hold you tight while you mourn the great loss of your father, grandfather, uncle, or brother. God bless all of you now and forever. You are all in my thoughts and prayers always.

Sending lots of love,

Christin

“ I remember earlier on this year what I got sick he would call me every weekend ask me how I'm doing and how's the baby and then Uncle dad would remind me how our mother loved us and he wish you was here and see how beautiful her family has become I could tell you miss her I'm still have a soft spot in his heart for her so that made me held on to every advice he would give me and every love that you would share for my sister and her family. Riding this truly breaks my heart further because he was just here and now you've gone Tears makes this for real. To the Brown family and Beyond I'm sorry for your loss I hope you would never have to go through hurt in your lifetime ever again as for you Reginald your work is not done your job is now to watch over your children and grandchildren make them feel warm in their life sleep in peace love Claudia.
