

Reginald Melvin Harvey

November 7, 1955 - May 21, 2018

Reginald Melvin Harvey, son of Emma Gethes and the late Booker T. Flemmons, was born November 7, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. On May 21, 2018, after a lengthy illness God called him to eternal rest.

Reginald received his formal education through the Baltimore City Public Education System.

Reginald was a lively child and enjoyed playing harmless pranks. He loved to play sports and surrounded himself with many friends. At an early age he was stricken with an illness which kept him away from home for most of his adult life. This was hard for Reginald because he loved being with his family. Throughout the years Reginald persevered, kept the faith and maintained a strong love for his mother and siblings. He was oh so happy when they came to visit or he could visit home.

He was preceded in death by one brother, Rodney Harvey and one nephew, Dion Harvey.

Reginald leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Emma Gethes; one sister, Patricia Williams of Pennsylvania; three brothers, James Harvey, David Flemmons and Deric Flemmons, all of Baltimore, Maryland; two nieces, Shawna Williams (Toriano) of Raleigh, North Carolina and Shania Flemmons of Baltimore, Maryland; three nephews, Ronnie Harvey, James Harvey and David Flemmons; and a host of other relatives and friends.
