

Reginald Howie

October 9, 1961 - June 19, 2016

Reginald Howie was born October 9, 1961 in Richmond, Virginia. He departed this life on June 19, 2016 after a lengthy illness.

Reginald, also fondly known as "Reggie" to many, received his education within the Richmond Public Schools system. Through the years he faced and defeated many adversities. He became a motivational speaker and participated in the "Scared Straight Program" for many youth organizations.

In his later years, Reggie relocated to Baltimore, Maryland and resided there until his demise. During his time in Baltimore, he became a full-time employee for both McCormick Spice Company, Hunt Valley, Maryland, and Under Armour, Baltimore, Maryland. He was a hard worker and well liked by all that knew his acquaintance.

Reggie was a kind-hearted, loving, genuine and humble person. Despite his illness and challenges in life, he was always positive and never gave up. He maintained a smile and never complained. Reggie will forever be missed and will always have a place in our hearts.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Anthony Howie-Crewe. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Helen Howie; two brothers, Jerome Howie and Calvin Howie; two sisters,

Cassandra Howie Taylor and Barbara Howie; three nephews, Donnell Rainey, Jereimy and Justin Taylor; one brother-in-law, Robert Taylor; three aunts, Izetta Douglas, Juanita Dandridge, and Lorraine Robinson; nine nieces, Martina Houston, Dione Houston, Quinita Crewe, Leona Crewe, LaShonda Howie-Matthews, Victoria Howie, Rochelle Howie, April Howie, and Moesha Howie; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ He was an inspired brother always quiet, hard worker, knowledgeable, wise, giver, supporting, educated, good character and my brother never gave up, despite the deeper pains that he felt within.

Something we will never feel.

Your brother,
