“ Deborah, this is Amara from Chesterfield Heights. I am so incredibly sorry for the loss of dear Reggie. He was like a father figure to me when we worked together. I just found out about his passing and could not believe what I was hearing. I will cherish the time I had with him, the laughs, his "hey baby, how you doing today" greetings, that big smile with that gold tooth, and even his laugh. I told Reggie he made me fat from all the good food he used to cook for us here. He cooked with love and you could taste every bite. I send you my love and prayers and a big hug. We will all see each other again someday in God's Kingdom. I love you!
