

Reginald Claiborne Johnson, Sr.

April 3, 1936 - February 20, 2013

Reginald was the youngest son born to Eugene and Ruth Johnson, in Richmond, Virginia on April 3, 1936. He was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters, Rose Johnson and Thelma Cotman; one brother, Bernard Johnson; one son, Anthony Jerome Binford and god-parents, Rufus and Eloise Smithea.

Reginald attended Armstrong High School, after which he joined the U.S. Army serving as a Military Police Officer (MP) and was honorably discharged after two years of service. Reginald was an active member of Great Hope Baptist Church.

As a founding member of the Metropolitan Antique Car Club of Richmond, he served in several positions. Reginald used his love of automobiles and showmanship in his service to the club, which ultimately grew to a membership of over 65 members.

Reginald was employed at Reynolds Metal Company, from where he retired after 30 years of service in 1995. While at Reynolds he served as the President of the Local #400 Union. He was also a member of Masonic Lodge #344.

Affectionately nicknamed "Red Peter" he lived a life of dedication and devotion, caring for and sharing with his family members and friends. Red Peter was a conversationalist who could and would engage in conversations with everyone, everywhere. Hunting, fishing, and resting with his pet, Candy, were his favorite hobbies.

Reginald leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife of 30 years, Thelma Binford Johnson; three children, Reginald C. Johnson, Jr.; Marquita Johnson Yancey (Douglas) and Joyinette Binford Frazier (Jesse); his grandchildren; Reginald C. Johnson, III (Artest) Jessica J. Bennett (DeRon), Reginald A. Fox, Marijan M. Johnson, MaYan Yancey, Marquita A. Yancey, Jessica Frazier, Jasmine Fraizer and Jamal Binford; his great-grandchildren, Anaya Johnson, Tavian and Travian Johnson (twins), Willow Bennett, Reginald and Tanisha Fox; three sisters; Dorothy Williams, Dolores Samuel and Jacquelin Coleman; two sisters-in-law, Naomi and Dinetta Riley; two god-children; Chase and Telayah; a devoted nephew, Cloyd Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends

“ Praying God will give you comfort and peace during this time. Shirrell Bonner Purnell & Family

S. Purnell - February 26, 2013 at 01:43 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I am sorry for your lost. May the family find comfort in the Holy Scriptures Knowing Jehovah God is aware of your distress during this time of grief.(Isaiah 66:13) God loves us and He knows the pain that death causes those who are left behind and He has promised to soon put an end to death forever. (Isaiah 25:8) May God continue to bless your family.
