

Reginald Lee Joyner, Jr.

October 10, 1990 - February 20, 2023

Legacy of Life

To be absent from the body means you are in the presence of the Lord.

Reginald Lee Joyner, Jr., was born October 10, 1990, in Richmond, Virginia to Reginald L. Joyner, Sr., and Michelle Mayo-Allen. He was preceded in death by his mother, Michelle Mayo-Allen.

Reginald received his formal education at Highland Springs High School in Highland Springs, Virginia. He graduated in June 2009.

He was employed by the United States Postal Service as a clerk for seven years. In his leisure, he enjoyed cars, music, dogs and was known to be a flashy dresser.

Reginald leaves behind a legacy of hard work and devotion to family. He ensured that his family had what they needed and even some things that they wanted. He will forever be known as a wonderful father that adored his daughter, nephew and sister. A true man that will be missed but never ever forgotten.

He leaves to cherish his memory beloved daughter, Jordan Joyner; sister,

Rayshanna Joyner; step-dad, Aubrey Allen, Jr.; nephew Deyondre Johnson; father, Reginald Joyner, Sr. and a host of other relatives and friends.

Don't look down for me look up because I'm in the arms of my God.
He has received me into his paradise.
I'm going to forever be with my Lord.

“ Before this , I never even knew his name. Yet I remember him as a kind soul. He always smiled and spoke to me at work , even offered me some of his food one day. My daughter worked briefly for the plant for the holidays. She always talked about how she met a coworker that was funny and a joy to be around. Little did we both know when she told me the news of his passing that it was him. Our hearts are heavy. Condolences to the family.
