

Reginald Lee McGee

January 4, 1957 - July 19, 2012

REGINALD L. McGEE, son of Anna McGee and the late Robert L. McGee, was born on January 4, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Thursday , July 19, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Reginald received his education at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. At the age of eighteen he became employed at the Monarch Rubber Company where he worked for over twenty-five years.

During his early years he met and formed a loving relationship with still good friends, Ms Cordelia, and from this union Marisa McGee was born. He later met Paulette Lucas with whom he had a special romance and maintained a lasting friendship. From this union was born, Reginald D. McGee. For his children he was a highly devoted and dedicated father.

Reginald, who was loving and affectionately known to family and friends as "Chickenman," was a very, very special, Kind, loyal, mild mannered, friendly, most humorous, playful and hard-working man. Chickenman would go above and beyond, giving his time and assistance to any and all who asked and needed him. For his mother, Mrs. Anna McGee, he was a dynamically wonderful, loving and devoted son. To meet and become a friend of Chickenman's meant forming a lifetime friendship and brother hood. He will be tremendously missed by everyone who knew him.

Heartbreakingly, he leaves to mourn: his mother, Mrs. Anna McGee; his daughter, Marisa McGee; two stepdaughters, Dominice and Danielle; his son, Reginald D. McGee; three grandsons, Sirron Jr., Dalontae and Sharod; son-in-law, Sirron Sr. and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ *To the family of Reginald Lee McGee,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) With sympathy,*
