

Reginald A. Robins

March 25, 1966 - February 27, 2021

REGINALD ALBERT ROBINS (REGGIE) was born on March 25, 1966 in Baltimore, MD to Ms. Loretta Robins and Mr. Ray Adams.

Reggie received his education in Baltimore City Schools and was a proud, spirited and boastful member of the Paul Laurence Dunbar Class of 1984 (Go Poets). An interest in the culinary arts and food service led him to receive formal training at the Baltimore Culinary School of Arts.

Hospitality is defined as the friendly and generous reception and entertainment of guest, visitors or strangers. We can add Reggie's name to this definition. Matthew 25 says "Then the King will say to those on his right, Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me." Reggie was the example of Christ's love and in action.

His Care and Compassion.....always for others;

His Passion.....ensuring others needs were met;

His Energy.....serving;

His Fun.....smiling when he saw others were smiling.

From Whittier Street (The Harvest House Crew) to Hanlon Park in “The County” was known as “the Mayor”. Reggie was an avid dancer, and a member of the Stepping Out Production Line and Hand Dance Troupe Baltimore Maryland. Taking the drive to care for others to the limit, Reggie was a Sales Management Consultant with PFP/The Family Security Plan for 18 years. He wanted to make sure that his clients were “covered and cared for”. He looked forward to the vacation trips with friends and colleagues. The consummate host even in leisure, there were so many instances, remembrances and pictures of Reggie serving and seeing to the needs of others.

Last Friday, God moved. He saw that Reggie’s service on earth was complete. God let him know that there was nothing more for him to do. His life was now an example.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Loretta Robins; cousins, Kay Alexander and Derrick Monroe; godson, Donte Johnson (Sharaa), grand-godsons, Donte Maurice Jr. and Dai’on Kyrice Johnson; neice, Kayla Grant; devoted and loving friend, Darren S. Buckner; brothers and sisters from other mothers Aziza Gary, Daryl Napier, Emily McMahan, Michelle Wilson, Sean Shomo, Sharonda Boardley; second mother, Eleanor Brown; and a host of family and friends. The list could go on, for he was well known throughout the Baltimore City and County area.

“ Since the first day we met, Reggie and I became like family. He always had a kind word, a smile, something to say that uplifted my spirit. Before and even after I retired from MECU, he would call me on my personal phone and say “ don't fuss at me but this member needs your help”, then he would say “it's all about the member”! He was my most favorite dance partner. He is and will always be my little brother, my friend. Love you forever Baby Bro.

“ Reggie-Reg, everything you did during your lifetime was in service to others. You were selfless, stylish, compassionate and kind. The world you left behind is better because you were here. That is the most amazing legacy. I am so saddened for Ms Loretta, and all of your family and dear friends. We will miss you greatly, and will always keep what you taught us in our hearts. Thank you my brother. Rest In Peace.

“Reginald. Today is the day. If I could awake from the dream I would be happy. I am aching right now. I will get it together because you would be worried. There is nothing you can do for me but leave me in the hands of God for wisdom Jesus Christ for guidance and the Holy Spirit to soothe my troubled mind. I accept all that God has granted me or us and I am thankful for role in my life. I'll give in now and I'll concede and call you Reggie just as everyone else did. Love you guy.

“ Share a memory about Reggie:

To even have to share a memory about my friend, completely breaks my heart. I have known Reggie since i was 7 years old, he was one of the first kids we met on Whittier Ave. His infectious smile and discerning laugh can never be replicated. When I got the news about Reggie Sunday, i started sobbing and could not stop. Reggie was always there for my family and at every affair. He was there for every stage in my life, childhood, teens, adult and now old age lol. I love you Reggie, i will never forget you, i miss you. Please give my brother a hug for me, i hope yall have the best time together in heaven!!! Donna Purvey
