

Reginald C. Swan

July 12, 1947 - February 17, 2020

Reginald Charles Swan, son of the late Lillian E. Jackson and stepson of the late Robert L. Jackson, Sr., was born on July 12, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Monday, February 17, 2020, God touched his hand and called His angel home to rest.

Reginald completed his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In 1965, he enlisted in the United States Army completing his basic training at Fort Hood, Texas. Prior to his honorable discharge in 1969, he did a tour in Vietnam. He also served in the Army Reserves from 1969-1971. After serving in the Military, he returned to school and studied Art. He accepted Christ as his Personal Savior and was baptized.

Reggie held many jobs in his lifetime; however, he loved working for the Mass Transit Administration and the Social Security Administration. He later found his passion in Barbering and became employed with O.M.Jones Barber Shop, Hamn's Barber Shop, and Heavenly Cuts. He was very passionate about what he did and was very good at it.

Reggie had the gift of "gab" and could hold a conversation with anyone about anything. He would call his sisters daily just to hold a conversation. He was a great artist and calligraphy was one of his trademarks. He loved to joke with his family and did his best never to miss a holiday dinner. Reggie loved sweets (got that from his Mama) and he always made sure he got his desserts before leaving the family gathering. He was always dressed to impress and always on the go never allowing grass to grow under his feet. He was loved by many for his sense of humor and he will be missed and forever in our hearts. For now, we will celebrate and let Reggie rest; although we loved him, God loved him best.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his daughters, Antoinette (Larry) Garland and Brandi (Jason) Johnson; five grandchildren, Alphonso White, Michael Swan, Kenard Joy, Lindsey Ligon, and Chloe Johnson; one great grandson, Michael Swan Jr.; three sisters, Peggy (Oather, Jr.) Jones, Sharon (Timothy) Davis, and Sandra Swan; a very special friend, Danielle Graham; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Never have I known a man with such a zest for life. A man that had conquered his demons and always helping others. Reggie may have been small in stature, but his presence was huge. Not one to hold his tongue, you always knew that he was coming from a good place with love in his heart. I feel bless to have know Reggie, he was one of a kind. He loved his woman, family, friends and customers. Even though his death was unexpected, I believe that God called a special Angel that day and Reggie answered his Call. My sincere condolences to those left to mourn his passing, just know that you will see him and that beautiful smile again.
