

Reginald Thompson

February 21, 1969 - January 26, 2022

Reginald Darnel Thompson was born in Baltimore, Maryland to Jeanie Thompson-Dakala and John Clark on February 21, 1969; he was one of three sons.

He attended Douglas High School in Baltimore, Maryland then later CCUI where he studied computer technology in Philadelphia, PA. He then worked as a help desk consultant for IBM. Upon returning to Baltimore, he worked as a realtor support staff in Joppatown, MD.

Darnel which is what his family and friends know him as was always eager to meet people. He was a true friend, calling most whom he knew family.

He had a kind heart, was unselfish in his giving whenever he could, and would do anything for anyone if asked for help.

In the past Darnell attended church regularly in Harford County, MD. In his last years he was still spiritual and enjoyed reading his bible. He leaves to cherish his memory his twenty-one-year-old daughter Regina, his fifteen-year-old son, Aswel and a one-year-old grand-daughter whom he was so proud of having.

Although there were times when he suffered from the pain of his spinal chord injuries he still was able to smile, even at time make jokes, and he had the ability to make you smile when you might not want to, "That's how He was!"; and he never wanted to miss seeing his aunts and family, always bragging about them. He was always so fond of his Aunt Cynthia, Phyllis and Linda. He also loved his brothers and cousins same as his brothers. He is survived by a host of relatives and friends.

He was a soldier in a war most of us don't see. He will be remembered always in the hearts of his family and missed every day..

One day all his loved ones will travel on to that special place our Lord Jesus Christ has prepared in the house of God.
