August 3, 1943 - May 10, 2013

REGINALD E. WEST, son of the late Clarence and Mary West, was born on August 3, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 10, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education at Frederick Douglass High School, where he was a member of the track team, until he graduated in 1962. He attended the Community College of Baltimore, where he studied law enforcement and sought employment as a Baltimore City Police Officer for eight years. In 1978, he was employed for twenty years with the Division of Corrections as a Correctional Officer, until his retirement. His love for law enforcement continued, as he became a Court Bailiff with the Wabash District Court, until his illness.

He was an active member of Gillis Memorial Church, where he served on the Deacon Board, Male Chorus and the Security team. He was also a member of the Community Association. He enjoyed running track and having cookouts, but most of all, he loved spending time with his grandchildren.

Reginald made numerous friends wherever he went. He loved to tell jokes and make everyone laugh. He was a devoted husband, father and friend. He was preceded in death by: his brother, Harry West and sister, Maudean Rice. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife (high school sweetheart) of forty-eight years, Margaret; two daughters, Martina and Karen; one son, Reggie Jr.; one sister, Juanita McGill; two brothers, Clarence and Leonard West; five grandchildren, Tierra, Christopher, Kristen, Kason and Jabrea; two great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ I am very sorry to hear of your loss, please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible also offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more at Revelation 21:4. Again, I pray this message brings you much comfort.
