That knowledge took him to some of the best restaurant right here in Baltimore, giving him the opportunity to develop his own special technique. Upon relocating to Seattle, Washington in 1994, he worked at various restaurants perfecting his craft. It was there in 1996 he met Faye Sisk, of Little Rock, Arkansas and Rev. While living in Tacoma, Washington he attended the Freedom Missionary Church of Seattle, under the pastorate of Pastor Bruce. Reggie was a very out going person. One who was very caring and loving and love to laugh. Always concern of the well being of others before him. He was very devoted to his wife, family, parents and those he loved. Reggie was happiest when cooking some of his favorite dishes for family and friends. You always knew you were included in his circle of friends when he would refer to you as “Who-En_Dolf” or tell you to “Drop Two Tears In a Bucket”. Whether it was a kind word of encouragement or when he prepared your favorite meal and decided to give you his secret recipes, you knew he was thinking of you. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
