

Reginald Wilson Jr

February 15, 1924 - August 16, 2010

Reginald J. Wilson was born on February 15, 1924 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the son of the late Reginald Alexander Wilson and Margaret Landing Wilson. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of seventeen, “ Reggie Josephus” as he called ,joined the United States Army. Following his basic training, Reggie was soon to find himself in the State of Washington aboard a ship that was en route to Japan to fight for his country. As fate would have it, the war ended in Japan before Reggie arrived to serve. Suffice it be said, his family was thankful that he was safe.

It was while serving in the Army, Reggie was able to find an expression of his love for singing and joined the Army Quartet.

Reggie was proud of fraternal affiliations. Hew was a member of East Baltimore Lodge #1043 -I.B.P.O.E. Of W. He was a Grand Lodge Officer- Grand Inner Guard, Imperial Deputy Marshall -Shriners Affiliation, Jerusalem Temple #4 and American Legion Post #19. He was a 33 Prince Hall Mason- Enterprise #3. Last but not least, Reggie was an Elk Ambassador of Good Will. He traveled the country and beyond.

Energetic, full of life and love. Reggie brought this enthusiasm to his work life as well. He was retired after seventeen years with B&O Railroad. He retired in 1987 from the Federal Protective Services in Washington, D.C. After twenty-nine years of service. Reggie was a faithful member of Central Baptist Church of Baltimore, Maryland. His family<sup>6</sup> loved him dearly. Reggie and his wife Gloria shared four years of marriage.

Reggie was preceded in death by: daughter, Edna Mae Wilson; stepsons, Maurice Brooks and Wayne Brooks; brothers, Dr. Robert J. Wilson, Ph. D. and Ferdinand Wilson; and sister Margaret Mayo.

Reggie is survived by: his wife, Gloria Wilson; daughter, Beulah Edwards, Wanda Wilson, Shelby Fergee-Penn and Dorea Stevenson; son, Nathaniel Bland; stepson, Houston Brooks (Vernadine); brothers, Dr. Donald P. Wilson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Earnest Gwaltney of Virginia Beach, Virginia; fifteen grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchildren; c countless nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Reginald was always a pleasant and jolly fellow when in the Elks Home on Harford Avenue. He appeared to enjoy his stay and status at the East Baltimore Lodge #1043, and he took an active part in the programs sponsored by both the Lodge and the Auxiliary, Zorah Elliott Temple #717. He will surely be missed.

Peace and Love to the family, and especially to the Grand Exalted Ruler Donald Wilson, whom I had the privilege to see and speak to as he left March's Sunday, August 22, 2010.
