

Rena Pearl Davis

July 6, 1943 - June 3, 2003

Rena Pearl Davis, daughter of the late Miles Stancil Davis and the late Margie R. Langley, was born on July 6, 1943 in Greenville, North Carolina. She departed this life on June 3, 2003 at Union Memorial Hospital, after a lengthy illness. Rena received her education at South Greenville Elementary School and C.M. Epps High School in Greenville, South Carolina. After moving to Baltimore, Maryland in 1958, she went to Frederick Douglas High School. Rena worked at Weis Deli, Pimlico Hotel-Restaurant, the Baltimore Country Club, and later at the Department of Social Services, where she loved and stayed until her illness. Rena was loved by all who knew her. She loved her family and friends and did all she could for them. Rena loved reading, cleaning, and watching TV, but her passion was cooking soul food. Her favorite dish to cook was North Carolina chopped barbeque. She leaves to cherish her memory: step parents, James and Mabelle Wade; five sons, Harold Matthews, Jr., Paul Richardson, Irving Davis, Everett (Tuna Fish) Harris, and Myron Davis; two daughters, Darlene Matthews and Keli Davis; one sister, Jean Burnette-Allen; one goddaughter, Sharyl Hughes; five grandchildren, Dante, Darsha, Irving Jr., India and Monte; a great-grandson, Dante Jr.; one niece, Angie; three nephews, Ronald, Donald, and Jimmy; one step sister, Debra Butler; one uncle, Johnny Langley; two aunts, Lula Langley and Corrinne Langley; a daughter-in-law, Trina Mitchell; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends; a lifelong best friend, Rachel Taylor.

“ I would just like to take this opportunity to say to the entire family that my prayers are with you. Ms. Rena Pearl was a good friend and mother, as I watched her go to work, and care for her family. Be encouraged and know that God is ever present in times such as these. Please call on me, if there is any way that I may be of assistance to you all! Love you all and make sure you all take care of each other.##imported-begin##Slelly Brown##imported-end##

“ Ma, I went to aunt Jean's church last Sunday. It was nice. Then we visited Grandma Mooka. I stopped at your house and it wasn't the same since you are not there. But I know it will get better soon. I've been making sure the family has home-cooked meals on Sunday's just as you would. Love you always. P.S. Aunt Jean is bothering Myron and staying on him about being on that corner.###imported-begin##Darlene Matthews###imported-end##

“ My condolences and sympathy to you on the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible rightly calls death "the last enemy" and it assures that death "IS TO BE BROUGHT TO NOTHING". Further we have this loving promise- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life."- John 5:28,29 So there is hope in God's New World of having your loved one back.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hi mommy, we are all here at your house (except Dickie and Tuna),It's Sunday and Darlene is cooking, I'm going to try and make some of your famous rice pudding. Irving keep teasing me saying that it will not taste nothing like yours. But I going to try my best. We all love you and miss you soooooo much. Wish you was here. We are coming to see you on Chistmas Day and New Year Day. This is our first Holiday season without you and it is hard. Oh, I know you heard about Aunt Barbara, can you believe that? Well we all went down North Carolina around Thanksgiving for Aunt Barbara funeral. Neda and them is taking it very hard. I really feel bad for Uncle Shep. But I'm sure that you and Aunt Barbara are in heaven together looking down on all of us. Anyway Paul and Myron wants to said something. Just wanted you to know that we will always love you....##imported-begin##Keli Davis##imported-end##
