

Renard David Maith

July 11, 1954 - May 25, 2007

Renard David Maith, son of the late Isaish Maith and Grace Elizabeth Norton Maith, was born on July 11, 1954. He departed this life, suddenly and senselessly, to return to this heavenly home on May 25th, 2007. Renard was educated in the schools of Baltimore City and Killeen, Texas. He also served in the U.S. Marines. He never married. Throughout his life, Renard was a fun-loving individual. He was friendly and caring, devilish and mischievous, candid and outspoken, trustworthy and loyal, weak and strong. While life's choices got in the way of him reaching his full potential, nothing changed Renard's love for family. And nothing will ever change our unconditional love for him. We'll miss and remember the best of times, Renard's side cracking remarks, his crazy antics, his lack of rhythm (though he thought he could dance), his patience with grand nephews, Sean and Josh, his laughter, his handsome and playful smile, and his good heart. He leaves to mourn his passing: Three sisters: Marcia Glover (John) JoMartina, and Margaret; one brother: Anthony; five nieces; Shawnel Mclendon (James) Sheena, Tiffany ebony, and Tereva; four nephews; Gregory, William, Terrell, and Eric; two grand-nephews; Sean and Joshua; extended Glover family; Mrs. Earther Lee, Moncia, Eric, and Ethan; extended Cloud family; Mrs. Cora Lee, Ronald, Kenneh and Vincent and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, friends.

“ *Please accept my condolences for your loss. John 11:1-44 reports that Jesus raised his dead friend Lazurus to life. This account is one of many that gives us much hope of our dead loved ones returning to life. Jesus said: "Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to."- John 5:21 May you receive much comfort and strength from friends and family. And may you receive much hope from these loving Bible promises. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.
