“ During this difficult time there are few words that can be said to ease the pain in the hearts of you dear loved ones. I would like to say that our great God Jehovah is aware of your sorrow. In time you can look forward to everlasting life with Renaud. Since Jehovah God is the source of life may you find comfort in knowing that he is capable of restoring life to someone who has died. Not only is he able but he is willing. Psalms 36:9 says, With you is the source of life. By your light we can see light. Acts 17:24,25 helps us to appreciate that God gives to all people life and breath and all things. Please continue to pray for the peace that God can give.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ The passing of this fine young man was more than a surprise. While driving home just a few days ago, I happened upon the memorial erected where the courts intersect. A number of teenagers advised me that someone had died there. Speaking with my son, he showed me Renaud's picture on his cellphone. I then recognized him as the pleasant and mannerly young man that worked at Mars. And only by accident did I happen upon his brother (at Mars) while trying to gather any information regarding his death and upcoming arrangements. Although our talk was brief, his brother, in limited words was able to grasp Renaud's significance: A caring and thoughtful person.

Occasionally, the community looks pass men like Renaud and sadly dwell on the negative. Those with eyes to see and ears to hear, realized that Renaud was special and represented everything go about his fellow blackmen. I learned a lesson: Instead of knowing the positive qualities of individuals I will now make it a point to personally acknowledge them.

Our prayers and thoughts are with the family and loved ones of Renaud.

“ My heart goes out to your family at this terrible time. Often words of a mere human will fall short of bringing comfort, despite our best efforts. I wanted to share with you God's words at Revelation 21:4 that says, "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." This promise from God is something we surely look forward to. Until the fulfillment may Jehovah God, speed his love and attention to your family. (shawnehurd@hotmail.com) ( www.jw.org)

“ I am saddened to learn of the loss of your dear Renaud. Please take comfort in knowing this was never God's purpose for him (Genesis 1:25-28). Our heavenly Father has already made provision to awaken him back to life, in the very near future. This is no mere fantasy. There are eight witnessed, and documented Resurrections in The Bible, giving a fore gleam of what will soon happen earth wide ( Mark 5:38-43, John 5:28-29). Renaud will awaken to a restored Paradise Earth, where sickness, sorrow and death are a thing of the past (Psalms 37:9-11, Isaiah 33:24, Rev. 21:3-4). May this wonderful, very real hope , and your treasured memories of Renaud's life help make your sleep peaceful and sooth the heartache you must surely be experiencing. Soon we can hope to embrace our lost loved ones again, because God always keeps His promises ! (Titus 1:2). My sincere condolences, Mrs. D. “ God Bless the family of Renaud Browne. Jodee I want you to know that Heaven has a hero in Renaud. His energetic spirit and fire made me love him like my own. We shared so many good times together at St. Ignatius Loyola Academy, on the soccer field and at various gathers sponsored through the school. Please find comfort knowing that Renaud will no longer be troubled or suffer any longer. He is in a better place right now than he's ever been before! Although it may be hard right now, it will be the memories of his smiles, laughter and quiet moments that will push away the pain. I pray that your heart finds peace, in the Almighty Father's Name I pray - Amen
