

Renee Adkins

April 1, 1966 - September 4, 2020

Legacy of Love

Renee Virginia Adkins, was born April 1, 1966 in Charles City, Virginia to Katherine V. Adkins and the late Thomas H. Adkins. She was called home by his heavenly father at the young age of 54 of Charles City on Friday, September 4, 2020.

She received her formal education in the Charles City Public School system and graduated from Charles City High School. Renee accepted her Savior at an early age and united with Parrish Hill Baptist Church.

Renee volunteered for numerous shelters and organizations throughout the years. Nae Nae, as she was affectionately called was a loving, kind, warm hearted, fun and adventurous mother, daughter, sister and friends. In her leisure, she enjoyed socializing, volunteering, listening to music and being at family celebrations. Renee was as dependable as they come and ready to help when and where it was needed. She was a wise woman whose mother-wit attracted anyone whom could benefit from her knowledge. If you didn't know what to do, she did.

She leaves to cherish his memory sons, Marcus, Kevin, and Koby Adkins; grandchildren, Malia, Marcus Jr. and Marshawn; mother, Katherine V. Adkins; brother, Garrett Adkins (Roxanne); sister, Linda Davis (Derwood); a host of other relatives and friends.

Nae Nae . . . A precious one from us is gone
. . . A voice we loved is still
A place is vacant in our hearts
. . . That never can be filled.

R.i.p, Renee, you use to always ask about my brother back in the day..

Kimbradby - September 12, 2020 at 04:54 PM

“ *Since the loss of you,
I've learned to live for each day
And take it as a blessing,
Knowing it may not always be this way.*

*Since the loss of you,
I've learned that when everything goes wrong
To never give up on what is right
Because it can only make you strong.*

*Since the loss of you,
I've learned that even when you're in a lot of pain
You've got to hold yourself together
So you won't feel like you're going insane.*

*Since the loss of you,
I've learned how to hold the tears when I want to cry
Because all I have is memories
And just want to ask God why.*

*But mostly, since the loss of you,
I've learned a life can be taken in the blink of an eye
And only Heaven really knows when
That person will have to say "Goodbye*
