

Renee` Annette Baskerville Jeter

February 3, 1958 - May 3, 2016

Renee Annette "Nae" Jeter (Baskerville) was called home on May 3, 2016 to be with her parents Joanna Kenner and Arthur Lee Baskerville She left us suddenly to be at peace.

Renee was born on February 3, 1958 (age 58) in Richmond, Vrrginia to Joanna Kenner and Arthur L. Baskerville. She was their third oldest child. She graduated from Highland Springs High School in 1977. Renee then married Floyd Jeter her sweetheart and soulmate in 1986. During this union they had three loving kids. Her children remember her as a kind and driven mother who encouraged them to pursue their goals.

Renee found her passion when she completed her Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) and got her first job working for Westminster Canterbury. She retired at Elmcroft of Chesterfield Assistant Living Facility due to her illness. Renee worked tirelessly to make sure everyone and anyone she came in contact with was taken care of without asking anyone for help. Renee touched so many lives with her compassion, love and helping others. Her character speaks for herself. Those vvho knew her knew that she had love for family. As Renee life lives on, family and friends will greatly miss her. The chain has been broken and we have a void in our hearts.
