

Renee White-Dorsey

May 3, 1955 - October 11, 2007

RENEE WHITE-DORSEY, daughter of Charles and Bernice White, was born May 3, 1955 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Renee was educated in Baltimore schools, Dunbar High School, Towson University and Morgan University. She was employed by Maryland State in various positions and was a very dedicated worker all of her work life. Renee met and married Howard Dorsey. This union was blessed with one son, Omar Dorsey. Renee enjoyed life, and had lots of friends because of her kind, loving and caring disposition. Her quiet time was spent reading God's word. She firmly believed in Jesus, praise and prayer. She loved her Mom and her family. Cherished memories of Renee's life will remain with her loving and caring family: her son, Omar Dorsey; daughter-in-law, Katrina Dorsey; sisters, Carmenta and Loretta White; a devoted friend, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of dear friends.

“ May I send my fellow feeling to you all in your circle of life being broken. Living for 52 years is a short time for mankind as the bible say at Ps.90:10, please read. We can look forward to never dying at all in the near future as our creator promises, Isa 25:8.Imagine the great happiness to be our to see that time. I am looking forward to it. May these few thoughts be postive and uplifting to read and share.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Dear family, please accept my sincere condolences. Although I didn't know her personally, she had a beautiful smile; and I know she was a wonderful person who will be truly missed. Death is so sorrowful, and it's so hard to come to terms with when a beautiful person passes away. One day the dead will return to life in the promised ressurection. Daniel 12:2 says, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." John 5:28,29 says that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. One day soon our loved ones will live again. May this wonderful promise sustain you, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
