“ I’ve known Renes “Eddie” Massey for close to 58 years (Alma Avenue days). In all those years I’ve always found him to be a kind, loving, good, and generous person. His spirit was always a happy spirit, even in later years whenever I happened to hop on a bus he would be driving. Gloria, I remember the early days when the two of you first met and I thought you were such a beautiful couple. Those were beautiful times. I pray that you and the children will let your memories of the times and years you shared together give you comfort for his life was just that much richer simply because you were in, and apart of, it. May God continue to bless each of you.
