

Rennard G. Cruse

September 16, 1936 - March 26, 2020

Rennard “Snookie” Cruse, son of Eleanore and Robert Jackson, was born on September 16, 1936 in Baltimore City Hospital. He departed from this life on March 26, 2020.

He received his early education from Baltimore City Schools and later graduated from Apex Beauty School of Cosmetology. He later choose to continue his education at Dundalk Community College and studied photography at Waxter Senior Center.

Snookie, as he was affectionately known, believed in doing right and treating others as he would want to be treated. He always tried to be understanding and strived to be a friend of everyone he met.

He walked in faith worshipping the Lord at New Psalmist Church, and he visited the worship services of Arlington Baptist Church. Snookie joined the United States Navy on February 21, 1955, and served this country until January 20, 1959. Later in the same year, Snookie married Earlor Brown with whom he spent many happy years. After many odd jobs he worked at Enviromental Elements Corporation for twenty-two years. He then worked at Armco Steel and Republic Steel until the company closed.

The loving imprint of Snookie will live on with his loving family and a host of dear friends.
