

Rennia Claudia Thompson

October 8, 1964 - December 20, 2023

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.

You believe in God; believe also in me.

My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.” John 14:1-3 NIV

Rennia Claudia Thompson was born October 8, 1964, in Brooklyn, New York to the late Raymond Bucker and Carrie Lee Thompson. She received her formal education in Brooklyn, New York. A proud graduate from Bay Ridge High School. Rennia accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was a member of Royal Light Temple in Brooklyn, New York, under the leadership of Bishop Mercer. Rennia later moved to Richmond, Virginia, with her 3 children and hit the ground running. With her infectious smile and heart of gold. She forged ahead, making many friends along the way. She was employed by Virginia Blood Services as a Phlebotomist for 17 years until her early retirement. Rennia received joy from music, dancing, crabs, fellowship, and friends. She never met a stranger. To know her was to love her! She enjoyed decorating her home. You were never surprised! She would often change her decor at a moments notice. She received her greatest joy from spending time with her grandchildren. She would often tell you “they are an extension of her heartbeats”. She was so excited to be a grandmother. Rennia was truly a social butterfly and always the life of any party. She was dedicated to her children, family, and friends. She had a heart of gold so pure and genuine. She leaves behind to cherish her memories two sons, Joseph Hall (Elizabeth), Devante Clark; one daughter, Shantel Clark; bonus daughter, Latarsha Miller; three grandchildren, Donnell Henfield Jr., Syncere Clark, and Skyla Clark; two brothers, Leonard Thompson, Rodney Thompson; three sisters, Sharon Parker, Julia Sheppard (Kissie), Carol Thompson Simms (Fitzroy); the love of her life and her children's father, Herman Clark, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends. She was preceded in death by her sister; Deborah Thompson; grandparents, William and Claudia Hall; devoted aunt Linda Mungin; niece Latisha Thompson and uncles Samuel Shuler and Lucious Shuler.

Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.
Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Proverbs 31:29-30

“ Rennia this has been so hard for me my friend. Losing my best friend of 25 years I will always cherish our memories. The last talk we had a video chat for 2 hours. Now heaven is your home. The one who created you God. His child has returned home. So now when I need to talk I have to pray to her you. I loved you than, now and forever more. So my dear friend take you rest here on earth now. You new job is watch over us from heaven above. Until we meet again your best friend Roland.

“ This is a different kind of hurt, but I pray to find peace in knowing you are no longer suffering It would be so selfish of me to want you here so I'll do my best along this journey without you in the physical.....but it's never yet been this hard to say goodbye 😭😭 You loved me & my child when you didn't have to... your door was always open. You brought so much love into my life & I will never forget you and all you meant to meI will mourn you until I join you my friend. You got your dancing shoes back & I just ask that you save me a dance ❤️ I am blessed to have known you & felt that love for over 20 years. Jody, Shakah & Budah~ continue to love each other & cherish the memories.
