“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:4,5 tells of God's new world where there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly reveals that "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Cooper, We all love and miss you. It hurts to just find out that your gone. We will always carry you in our hearts and cherish the sweet memories we have. Lucille we really wish you would have called and informed us that Cooper had passed. It hurt the entire family to find out today March 17, 2010 that he passed January 30, 2008. You really could have told our mother that he'd passed. It really hurt her to find this out. She raised him Lucille. We would have like to say goodbye to him also. “ ~~ In Memory of Rennie (Little Cooper) Boiseau. From: Your Family The Thompson. A NOTE FROM HEAVEN If I could write from HEAVEN, this is what I'd say, Please don't miss me too much, I'm with you throughout your day. You may not see or hear me, but if you're quiet and still, You may just feel my presence; because, in Heaven, there is free will. Don't worry for the day. it will come and go as planned, Enjoyed each moment you are given, keep worry from your hand. Keep sorrow to a minimum; For if Heaven you could see, You'd know I'm safe and happy, I did not cease to be. Moments in time are brief, until we'll be together again, as Eternity lasts forever, our lives, they have no end. Love Always your Family: Grandnie, uncles: William Samuel, Stanley and aunts: Dee, Mollie, cousins: Tony, Missy, Typheria and Kierra; Dontray, Niquita and NiSheer'er. No one can take away your loving memories...##imported-begin##Aunt Dee##imported-end##
