

Reshard J. Dorsey

November 6, 1980 - May 5, 2020

Saying goodbye to earth means saying hello to Heaven for those who seek God by accepting his son Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. RESHARD JEREMIAH DORSEY, the second born and beloved son of Beverly and Garvin Dorsey was born November 6, 1980 and called to his heavenly home May 5, 2020. The young family was about to welcome their second child and a name was needed. However deciding what to name this baby came about effortlessly. Antwand "Troy" the eldest child had a friend in daycare named Reshard and asked his parents to bestow this name upon his new sibling, his parents agreed. This name suited Reshard well but as years went on many began to affectionately call him Rash. A perfectionist to the heart, anything involving Reshard had to comply with his flawless standards. He was neat and clean and wanted things surrounding him to be in line with his standards. This often caused problems between him and his youngest brother Ryan who didn't possess this same impeccable characteristic. But even though they had a different style they also had an extremely close bond. When you saw one you knew the other wasn't far behind, one always looking out for the other. Educated in Baltimore City and Baltimore County school Systems, Reshard graduated from Woodlawn High School in 1998 and then attended Catonsville Community College. When he moved into the working world there were various jobs, what he loved best was being an independent contractor. He was skillful, reliable and paid close attention to detail in all of his occupational endeavors. In his early years Reshard attended Huber Memorial Church for Saturday Bible school. As a teenager he accepted Christ and was baptized at Friendship Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend William McCoy, Jr. and attended church there for several years. He was a music lover and enjoyed listening to and singing gospel songs.

“ Reshard is my nephew. He is beloved. I could always count on him to come to my rescue. My basement flooded and I wouldn't have to call he would call and say he would be over. He would have breakfast with me and loved to talk about something he read or a video he saw. He loved language and really considered going to school to study origin of languages. Such a sweet, smart man. I will miss him but I am grateful for my memories. Paradise surely awaits you I pray you will join your brothers and your dad and be your mother's angels. Love you Aunt Nita
