

Retha Hill Evans

April 16, 1936 - August 12, 2013

On Monday morning, August 12, 2013, God reached down and picked a rose for His garden. RETHA was born on April 16, 1936 in Halifax County, North Carolina to the late Anna Alston and Billy Watson.

She was educated in the North Carolina School System. Retha birthed seven children; two preceded her in death, Larry and Lester Watson. Retha, affectionately known as "Maw," married the late George Evans in 1992. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother.

She attended Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church under the leadership of Bishop Reginald Kennedy.

Maw was employed at Maryland General Hospital as a Certified Nursing Assistant, followed by many years as a Private Duty Nurse. Caring for others, whether it was family members or friends, is what Maw loved to do.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Leon and Mingo Watson; three daughters, Brenda Gross, Theresa Watson and Sylvia Watson, and Jacqueline Watson/ daughter-granddaughter; two sons-in-law, Robert Winder and Jerry Gross; daughter-in-law, Lee Whitehead; three sisters, Maggie Caple (Nat), Vodie Overbey (Doolie) and Marion Edmonds (Teal); three brothers, Billy Watson (Bud), Grady and Thomas (Bubble) Jefferson; twenty-two grandchildren, thirty-seven great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

“ Our heartfelt condolences to the family of Retha Hill Evans. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. Our prayer is that you may find comfort through God’s Word, the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 tells us: “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.” May you be strengthened and comforted during this time of loss.

“ To the family and friends of RH Evans. We don’t know each other personally, but I wanted to let you know that I am deeply sorry for your lost. It is a tragedy to lose a loved one in death. I know that she will be deeply missed. However, I would like to share something with you that might offer some comfort. The Bible mentions that not only will God help you through this situation, but it also helps us to appreciate that we will have the opportunity to see our lost loved ones again. Read Psalms 34:18 and also John 5:28,29.

I hope these scriptures can provide a sense of comfort for you and your family. All of you in my prayers...

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
