

Reva Delores Charity

November 3, 1945 - December 3, 2016

Our Beloved Reva went to be with the lord on Dec 3rd 2016.

She was born on Nov 3rd 1945 to William(Effie) Morris Jr. and Mozelle Fleming-Morris whom preceded her in death along with (Daughter) Alicia Lorraine Charity (Son) Lloyd Vincent Hodge II (Brothers) William, Maurice, and Walter Morris {Sister} Mary Laverne Morris Green.

Reva Was educated in the Richmond public School System and graduated from Armstrong high school in 1964. She continued her education at RPI business school. In the 70's she worked at Medical College of Virginia as triage receptionist. Later she moved to D.C. continuing her education taking various computer courses. For years Reva took great pleasure in performing secretarial duties at Stewart Title Co. as well as multiple construction sites in the D.C. area including the green line metro station in Southeast D.C. She later relocated to Va. retiring from Senior Connectons in 2007.

Reva loved her family immensely. She took great pride in helping her Mother in raising her siblings. She would nurture them, they meant the world to her and She would sacrifice for them. She would teach them everything she knew. She loved all of her cousins and cared for them as though they were her own siblings. She would often talk about the fun and good times they had growing up like going to Grandma Lelia's house for the summer.

She loved music and singing. Back in, the 70's she along with Janice Morris, Celestine Cox, and Carolyn Jones were discovered at a talent show (in which they won) by John Mills who later asked them to sing with The Del Vikings. They took up the offer becoming The Vikettes. They performed in local clubs in Richmond for years ultimately going on to sing for Lord.

The love she had for her children was unconditional and evident, it was truly a mother's love and we experienced it through her actions and soul. She was very creative and could draw and taught her children to draw as well. They would instead of watching tv, have fun by playing games and having drawing contests. Like with her siblings she nurtured, taught, and sacrificed for her children.

“ I am very sorry that death has robbed your family of someone you loved. In the Bible there are many scriptures that provide comfort. Our heavenly father knows your distress. Jehovah our GOD is referred to as the “The Father of tender mercies and the GOD of all comfort.” Please read 2 Cor 1:3-4, Psalms 34:18 and Isaiah 65:2 for words of comfort
